

A Musical Evening with Adithya

A special evening, a mesmerizing performance, a captivated audience, a joyful atmosphere and a hopeful silence...this was the essence of the musical evening with Adithya Venkatesh, who played exquisite compositions of legends of Indian Classical Carnatic music. Aashwasan presented the musical at Kalarasa, where around hundred people thronged to witness Adithya, who stood as hope to all suffering from developmental disorders and broke barriers of perspectives to instill hope. Parents, Vidhya and Venkatesh shared their journey, as to how devastation turned into possibilities and possibilities to reality. A deep experiential journey left everyone hopeful.
